

Annual Social

Written by Administrator
Wednesday, 21 May 2014 06:51 -

Annual Social

"Nabin Baran" and Pratushruti :Annual Social Functions of the College are arranged every year in the months of August - September and March respectively. The aim of these functions is to provide scope for students of New Alipore College to develop their talent in different fields of Social and Cultural life and Fine Arts including Music. Quiz and Debate Competitions are also held which fosters the students' ability to argue and have a broad based knowledge of the world around them. During the Annual Social, prizes are successful participants in different fields of cultural pursuits throughout the year are awarded.